Conflict in the Church
Acts 15:36-16:5

We expect conflict in worldly affairs such as the job, business, school and home. We do not expect conflict in church even though it does happen. Matter of fact, some are here today because of conflict at a previous church.

Let's be honest, most conflict is caused by selfish and evil motives. However, there is a story in the Bible about conflict with spiritually mature loving brothers and it gives us some insight on how we should view conflict in the church. At the end of this study there are lessons learned and actions we should take.
