

Four Aspects of Righteousness

Scriptures clearly emphasize a vital difference between God and man. God is righteous and man is not. Romans 3:10 states, “there is none righteous, no, not one”. Therefore, one of the great glories of divine grace is the fact a perfect righteousness has been provided and is freely given to all who believe (Rom. 3:22).

A. God is _____

1. The righteousness of God is _____
2. God is righteous in _____
3. God is righteous in _____

B. The _____ of Man

1. In the sight of God, the righteousness of _____
2. In relation to God, men are not wise _____

C. The _____ Righteousness of God

1. Biblical illustrations of _____
 - a. _____ (Gen. 3:21)
 - b. _____ (Gen. 15:6)
 - c. _____ (Philem. 17-18)
2. Imputation affects _____
3. Imputed righteousness is the _____

D. Righteousness _____