

EPISODE 3: “DON’T RAISE YOUR ANCHOR”

HEBREWS 2:1-4

CONTEXT

In this episode, we will look at the reliability of God’s message and why we should keep our faith, hope, and trust in it. Opinions and oppositions can tempt us into drifting away from his message; however, we must not allow what we hear and see cause us to raise our anchor from him. Let’s take a look at why we should remain anchored in God.

Who Declared the Message

- i. _____ (Hebrews 2:2-3a)
 - 1) The message that the angels declared was the _____ (Deuteronomy 33:2; Acts 7:38, 53; Galatians 3:19)
 - 2) Christ’s superiority does not _____ the importance of the law
 - (1) The Law of Moses served as a _____ until Christ came (Galatians 3:24)
 - (a) The Greek word is paidagōgos, describes a slave who acts as tutor and disciplinarian until children mature.
 - (2) “The Law of Moses was the ‘Preparatory Gospel.’” (Edward J. Brandt)
- ii. _____ (Hebrews 2:3b)
 - a) Christ’s message was a message of _____ and _____ (Matt. 4:17; Matt. 5:3, 10; Luke 12:31, 32; Luke 22:28-30)

Who Confirmed the Message

- i. _____ (Hebrews 2:3b)
 - a) The message was confirmed by _____ (Luke 1:2; 2 Peter 1:16; 1 John 1:1-4)
 - b) An eyewitness has physically seen the _____ and _____ (crucifixion and resurrection) of Jesus Christ.

What Affirmed the Message

- i. _____ (Hebrews 2:4)
 - a) (Mark 16:14-20; Acts 2:22; Acts 6:8)
- ii. _____ (Hebrews 2:4)
 - a) (John 11:38-44; John 14:11)
- iii. _____ (Hebrews 2:4)
 - a) (1 Cor. 12:1-11)