

LESSON 27: "THE VOICE" HEBREWS 12:25-29

CONTEXT

In this lesson, we are going to explore what to do when God speak and the consequences from refusing, disobeying, and rejecting the voice of God. We should accept when God speaks with gratitude and reverence because His righteous judgment will be severe if we reject it.

God's voice is inescapable (v. 25)

- i. God has spoken on the _____ from Sinai (Heb. 12:25)
 - a) The Jews _____ Him not to speak and _____ His voice (Heb 12:25; Heb 12:19; Luke 14:16-24)
 - b) Refusing the voice of God led them to _____ lives in the wilderness.
- ii. God now speaks in _____ through Jesus (Heb. 12:25; Hebrews 1:1-2)
 - a) Rejecting God's voice from heaven carries a _____ (Heb. 12:25)

God's voice is powerful (v. 26-27)

- iii. God shook the _____ in the Old Testament, but will shake _____ and _____ in Christ's second coming (Hebrew 12:26; Hag. 2:6; Rev 11:11-15)
 - a) A shaken earth is a sign of God's _____/Day of the Lord (Is. 13:13; Matt. 24:7-8)
- iv. In the second shaking, only the _____ remains (Heb. 12:27; Matt. 7:24-27)

God's voice is a consuming fire (v. 28-29)

- i. The kingdom is be _____, not _____ (Heb. 12:28; John 16:13-17)
 - a) Receiving the gift of salvation yields:
 - 1) _____, not ownership

2) _____, characterized by reverence and awe.

3) We aren't unshakeable because of _____, but because of His grace

ii. God's judgment and promise is a _____ (Heb. 12:29; Deut. 4:23-24)

a) Jesus came to earth with a winnowing fork (Luke 3:17)

b) God's _____ precedes God's _____ (2 Peter 3:9-10)