

WEEK 9: How Do I Share My Faith?

Memory Verses: John 1:7-8 (CSB)

*"He came as a witness to testify about the light so that all might believe through him.
He was not the light but came to testify about the light."*

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

SINGLES

1. As a single person, how can you actively be a witness for Christ in your daily life, both in your workplace and social circles?
2. In the context of being single, how can you find and build a supportive Christian community that encourages and uplifts you in your faith journey?
3. How do you navigate the challenges of sharing your faith with friends or acquaintances who may not have the same beliefs?

SINGLE PARENT

1. How can you effectively model and share your faith with your children in the midst of the unique challenges you face?
2. In what practical ways can the church community support you in both your spiritual and practical needs?
3. As a single parent, how do you balance the responsibilities of raising children and maintaining your own spiritual well-being, and what strategies can the group share to help navigate this balance?

TEENS

1. As a teenager, how do you approach sharing your faith with peers at school or in other social settings, and what challenges do you face in doing so?
2. How can parents and the church community best support and guide you in expressing and understanding your faith during this pivotal stage of life?
3. As a teenager, how can you remain grounded in your faith amidst the various influences and pressures you encounter?

YOUNG ADULT

1. How can you navigate the transition from adolescence to adulthood while maintaining a strong foundation in your faith, and what can you learn from each other's experiences?
2. In the workplace or in educational settings, how can you effectively share your faith without compromising your professionalism or academic integrity?
3. As a young adult, what are some practical ways to establish and maintain spiritual disciplines in the midst of busy schedules, and how can you provide accountability and support to other young adults?

MARRIED COUPLES

1. In what ways can a married couple actively demonstrate your faith to others, both inside and outside your family?
2. How can the foundation of a strong marriage serve as a testimony to the transformative power of faith in Christ?
3. How do you balance individual spiritual growth with growing together as a couple in a marriage?

FAMILY

1. How can you as a Christian family effectively work together to share your faith and values with each other and the community?
2. In what practical ways can family routines and traditions be infused with the principles of faith, making faith a central aspect of your family life?
3. How can you as a Christian family create a supportive environment for each member to express and explore your personal faith journeys?

WIDOWED

1. How can you continue to actively participate in sharing your faith within the church and community?
2. In what ways can the church family provide support and care for you as you navigate your faith journey? And, how can it improve?
3. How might the experience of loss influence the way you share your faith with others?

GEM PARENTS

1. How can the church community support and include families with GEM kids in their faith-sharing efforts?
2. In what ways can faith be a source of strength and encouragement for you as a parent of a GEM kid?
3. How might the unique challenges of parenting a GEM kid shape the way you share your faith with others?

NEWLYWEDS

1. How can you build a foundation for your faith that will sustain you through various life stages?
2. In what ways can you actively involve their faith in decision-making and daily life?
3. How can the church community support and mentor you in your journey of faith?

EMPTY NESTERS

1. How can you use your newfound freedom to invest more time in sharing your faith with others?
2. In what ways can the experiences of raising children shape the way you approach sharing your faith?
3. How can the church community support and encourage empty nesters in this stage of life as you seek to share your faith?

DIVORCED

1. How can you navigate sharing your faith in a way that reflects God's grace and healing?
2. In what ways can the church community provide a supportive environment for you to express and live out your faith?
3. How does the experience of divorce shape your understanding and expression of faith, and how can this be a testimony to others?

GOLDEN SAINTS

1. How can you continue to share your faith and wisdom with the church community and beyond?
2. In what ways does a lifetime of faith influence your perspectives and priorities?
3. How can the church provide meaningful opportunities for you to actively participate in sharing your faith?