

Wednesday, September 4, 2024

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT ANGELS?

EXPLORING THE SUPERNATURAL

Context

The Bible mentions or alludes to angels over 300 times. So God's Word has enough to say about angels that we need to make sure we understand them. In this session, we will look at several things about angels, including the perception of angels, the place of angels, the purpose of angels, and the presence of angels in the Bible.

I. The Perception of Angels

- a. Myth: People become angels when they die.
 - i. Truth: People are _____ with special status (Genesis 1:26)
- b. Angels are eternal beings.
 - i. Truth: Angels are _____, but not eternal. (Luke: 20:36)
- c. Angels can read your mind.
 - i. Truth: Angels do appear in _____, but cannot read your mind. (Matthew 1:20)
- d. Humans can command angels.
 - i. Truth: Humans will one day _____, but cannot command them. (1 Cor. 6:3)

II. The Place of Angels

- a. Angels are _____ . (Hebrew: molak and Greek: angelos)
- b. Angels are _____ . (Hebrews 12:22)
- c. Angels _____ . (Job 38:4-7)
- d. Angels do not _____ . (Matthew 22:30)

III. The Purpose of Angels

- a. Reveal and _____ God's will. (Psalm 103:20-21)
- b. _____ God's Creation (Psalm 91:11-12)
- c. _____ from trials (Acts 12:7)
- d. _____ during trials (1 Kings 19:5-7)

IV. The Presence of Angels

- a. Angels were present at His _____ . (Luke 2:13-14)
- b. Angels were present at His _____ . (Matthew 4:11)
- c. Angels were present in His _____ . (Luke 22:43)
- d. Angels were present at His _____ . (Mark 16:5-7)
- e. Angels were present at His _____ . (Acts 1:10)
- f. Angels will be present when He _____ . (Matthew 16:27)